How much does Launch Amsterdam cost?

The early bird price for Launch Amsterdam is $175. It goes up on August 26 to $200. While the actual cost is much higher, IV Study Abroad works hard to raise student scholarships to give you this once in a lifetime experience.

What is included in Launch Amsterdam?

This 3-day, 2-night guided experience includes:

- Lodging from Friday night through Sunday afternoon.
- All meals from Friday dinner to Sunday breakfast.
- Excursions Saturday morning and afternoon.

What is on the itinerary?

We will be engaging in several sessions over the course of the weekend that will be a combination of bible study, discussion, and quiet reflection. On Saturday, you will have some free time to explore the city, as well as 2 excursions with the group.

What is housing like?

We will be staying at the StayOK Hostel in Amsterdam. Rooms will be shared with a private bathroom.

What should I pack?

- Good walking shoes. We will not be doing any hiking, but will be doing quite a bit of walking around the city.
- Waterproof jacket (always expect rain!)
- Personal toiletries
- A Bible and small journal if you like to write.

What if I need to cancel?

The $75 deposit is non-refundable.

Which airport should I fly into?

Fly into the Amsterdam Schiphol airport.

When should I arrive?

Plan to arrive to Amsterdam's Central Station between 4-5pm on Friday September 26th. The retreat will begin at 6pm. We'll meet in Amsterdam central station. After dinner we'll travel together to the hostel in Heemskerk. You can buy a train ticket to Amsterdam Central at the airport. The train station is located below the airport.

When should I depart?

The retreat ends at 12 noon on Sunday. Please plan your travel with enough time to get from the hostel to the train/airport, likely no flights earlier than 4:00pm.

Can I stay in Amsterdam longer?

You are welcome to stay longer in Amsterdam, either before or after Journey! You will need to book your own accommodations for any additional nights.
