

Encounter Room

MAIN FOCUS

1. Create space for students to encounter God for themselves.
2. Let God speak for Himself.
3. Ask powerful questions.

Good coaches: Facilitate a hospitable space for students to encounter God

Help students discern God's voice.

Listen to students while they process what they are hearing from God.

Pray for and with students.

Great coaches: Build up students' confidence in their ability to hear from God for themselves.

Help students identify and pray through obstacles or barriers.

Help students articulate the things God is speaking in a way that draws others into deeper encounter with God.

Encounter Room

MAIN FOCUS

1. Create space for students to encounter God for themselves.
2. Let God speak for Himself.
3. Ask powerful questions.

Good coaches: Facilitate a hospitable space for students to encounter God

Help students discern God's voice.

Listen to students while they process what they are hearing from God.

Pray for and with students.

Great coaches: Build up students' confidence in their ability to hear from God for themselves.

Help students identify and pray through obstacles or barriers.

Help students articulate the things God is speaking in a way that draws others into deeper encounter with God.

Coaching in Encounter

Powerful Questions

1. Why did you come to the encounter room?
2. Where are you stuck?
3. Where do you need a breakthrough?
4. What do you think God is saying about this?
5. How has God spoken to you in the past? Pictures? Scriptures? Feelings? Something Else?
6. When you imagine yourself in the place God is sending you on campus and picture Jesus there, what is He saying & doing?
7. When was the last time you heard from God? How did you respond? Is there anything left undone?

Coaching in Encounter

Powerful Questions

1. Why did you come to the encounter room?
2. Where are you stuck?
3. Where do you need a breakthrough?
4. What do you think God is saying about this?
5. How has God spoken to you in the past? Pictures? Scriptures? Feelings? Something Else?
6. When you imagine yourself in the place God is sending you on campus and picture Jesus there, what is He saying & doing?
7. When was the last time you heard from God? How did you respond? Is there anything left undone?