

FAITH JOURNEY QUIZ

Here are five steps on a spiritual journey
(please read each step out loud). Where are you?

TRUST

I try to value all kinds of people, but I don't usually trust Christians.

Are you willing to become friends with a trustworthy Christian? What would it take to extend trust?

CURIOUS

I'm curious about how other people see and experience the world.

Asking questions unlocks mystery. What issues of faith are you curious about?

OPEN

I'm open to seeing if God can meet a need in my life.

Are you open to trying something new like prayer? What need would you like God to meet?

SEARCHING

I'm searching for deeper meaning. Could Jesus be worth following?

If you could find the answer to one question that would help you trust Jesus, what would it be? Are you willing to put some time into exploring Jesus?

FOLLOWING

I'm following Jesus with my whole life. I hope my friends encounter God, too.

We're looking for students like you to start a Jesus movement here. What do you long for God to do on your campus? How might God work through you?

Would you be curious to know how Christians view the world?

God created the world with love and purpose. We are made in God's image, to live with God at the center of our relationships.

The world broke when humans pushed their Creator away. Our world is divided and hurting. We carry pain inside us that can damage others. We sometimes participate in oppressive systems.

The Spirit of Jesus sends us to restore relationships, repair communities, and seek justice. We invite others into God's healing.

But God did not abandon us. Jesus came to heal us. He took our personal evil and our world's evil to the grave with him. He came back to life to bring new life to us.

Would you like to start following Jesus today?
Or, would you like to take a different step towards faith?

If you're already following Jesus, would you like to invite others into God's healing? Are you part of a community that can live out Jesus' ways together?
